Dear Mrs. Strickland:

I just received my copy of Who Married Whom in Jasper County and am thoroughly enjoying it. In the introduction, you asked for additions or corrections. Those I have are as follows:

Page 106 - Ira French and Family....

- (1) James M. French married Bridget Kerley, daughter of John and Mary Kerley (pg. 174), in 1886. These are my paternal great-grandparents.
- (2) Ira French died during the Civil War. According to his CSA military records, he died at the Seventh Louisiana Military Hospital in Brookhaven on Feb. 28, 1863. He
- (3) held the rank of private in Company A, 7th Battalion, Mississippi Volunteers.
- (3) His daughter, Mary Ellen, was born May 2, 1863 not 1864. Her husband was C. James, not G. James.

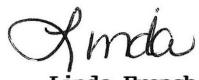

Page 174 - The sons of John and Mary Kerley....

All the Kerley brothers eventually moved to Bassfield in Jeff Davis County. Enclosed is a family history.

You will find several of the Irish Paulding families in Bassfield records, especially at St. Peter's Church and in St. James Cemetery. Father Mike Kelleher of St. Mary's in Gautier researched many of these families several years ago. You may want to get with him someday.

Again, thanks for the book.

Sincerely,

Linda French

KERLEY

Kerley (Curley-MacCurley-Turley) are the anglicized forms of the old Irish (Gaelic) name - MacFhearghaile, which is almost entirely confined to Connaught and particularly the counties of Galway and Roscommon. The connection of Curley with Roscommon is emphasized by the placenames Ballymacurley and Curley's Island - both in that county.

In 1810, John Kerley was born in King's County (Offaly) Ireland. Around 1847 he married Mary Cotter who was born in 1819 in County Armagh. The 1840's were a time of terrible famine in Ireland as the potato crop failed year after year. John and Mary decided to immigrate to America. As a first step, they, like many poor families, went to Manchester, England to work and raise money for passage. While in Manchester, their first son, William, was born in 1848. They eventually left for the USA and entered through the port of Mobile. They found their way to Paulding in Jasper County, Mississippi. Their next four children were born in Mississippi. Those children were Joseph (1851), Thomas Leo (1852), Bridget (1857) and Peter (1864). John Kerley died between 1864 and 1870 and is buried in Paulding. Mary Cotter Kerley died at the age of 87 in 1906. She is buried in St. James Cemetery in Bassfield.

Bassfield (Jeff Davis County) was originally settled by twelve families. Ten of the families, including all four Kerley brothers, were of Irish descent. The Falter family was German and the Sylvester family was Italian. Over the generations, the Kerleys have managed to integrate all the other families into the Kerley family.

William Henry Kerley married Mary Ann Burgin. They were the parents of four children. In 1884, there was a typhoid epidemic. William and three of his children died of the dis-
